Property Description

This is one of the crowning jewels of Santa Teresa's Real Estate Market. This magnificent property has arguably the best views in the area. It sits perched on the highest point of the hill above the main beach of Santa Teresa, boasting the most delightful and privileged view a lot in the Maramar gated community could possibly have. Every room of this luxurious house has a bird's eye view of the surf and the water crashing below on the main beach break, while sunsets and sunrises are simply a daily spectacle from this unparalleled location. This house is thoughtfully structured around an open floor plan that connects the kitchen, the dining room and the central living area. Alongside these, there are four spacious bedrooms and three and a half bathrooms, all with amazing whitewater views. Outside, an outdoor living area overlooks a gorgeous infinity pool with its own water slide that slithers its way from the second floor directly into the pool.
