Property Description

Casa Griega Abby is a villa inspired by the Greek architecture of Santorini, painted in the typical white and blue colors of houses along the Mediterranean seaside. This property sits atop the cliffs overlooking Playa blanca, offering a breathtaking ocean view, and a privileged location to enjoy the most amazing sunsets the Pacific has to offer. As part of Altos de Leonamar, Casa Griega Abby comes with 24-hour gated security, and privileged access to all the conveniences of the Jacó and the Herradura Bay. With exclusive access to Playa Caletillas and Playa Blanca, the Altos de Leonamar private community presents a strategic location to explore the wonders of the coast of Puntarenas, from lush National Parks to all the activities one does in tropical paradise. Living in Casa Griega Abby also offers the option of joining the Punta Leona Club, and enjoys its distinctive amenities, going from mini golf and butterfly gardens to bars and boat launches.
