Property Description

From the covered parking you have easy entrance to the home and great room with large kitchen with premium appliances and island for preparing delicious meals and casual dining. Outfitted with quartz countertops, custom made cabinets and premium appliances. The adjacent living area is two levels. The conversation area at kitchen level and the soft cushioned sunken living room with sofa that warps around all four sides. Windows that open to the jungle on one side and the ocean and pool area to the other. The pool is designed with a shallow beach area to lounge and a great place for kids. A total of 8 m (26 feet) long with an infinity edge cascading towards the ocean. A large covered outdoor space includes living and dining, and an extension of the indoor kitchen to the large grill station and wet bar outside. The views are surprisingly panoramic when you see the quick proximity to town and all the services, activities and social possibilities that Uvita and the Costa Ballena offers.
