Property Description

This delightful home just received a lot of upgrades and is definitely priced to sell. If you are looking for a three-bedroom home in excellent condition in a safe and private community, then you should have a look at this gem. It checks all the boxes. As you pull into the driveway, the seductive landscaping and tile work is a stunning welcome to this home. The path inside is adorned with brightly colored flowers and long, wispy grasses that gently sway in the mountain breeze. Standing in this doorway, looking out at the mountainous landscape, you will feel like you live in a magical, fantasy world that is simpler and more tranquil than what the majority of us are used to. The neatly laid tile work flows seamlessly into the home's open-concept great room that has an equally majestic feel to the awesome mountain valley outside the front door. Inside, you are greeted by an eye-catching feature wall and sculpted wood accents that create an air of wonder alongside the 15-ft high ceilings.
