Property Description

This green and gorgeous 4.3 hectare farm offers a great space to get away from it all! The farm is only 300 meters or so from the paved road in Quebradas. There is a small cabin with one bedroom, bath and kitchen. The farm features multiple large building sites and basic installations for horses or cattle. The perimeter of the farm is completely fenced. There are internal roads winding throughout the entire farm, making it very easy to transverse. The access to the farm is over a very well-maintained easement that is only about 300 meters off the Quebradas main road. The farm features dramatic views of the valley and the famous mountain ridge known locally as the "Sleeping Indian." The farm sits at well over 1,000 meters altitude (3,300 feet) offering a near perfect climate. The farm is only 10 minutes from downtown San Isidro and only about an hour from the beach!
