Casa Oasis is a stunning modern jungle home located in the residential heart of Samara yet surrounded by a private jungle atmosphere and just a few blocks away from the beach, shops, restaurants and all town amenities. This modern home is lined with a glass façade that faces to the east to allow tons of natural light into the living spaces. A sliding access door opens the way to a large pool with a waterfall feature, behind which is a relaxation area and barbecue. Around the pool there is a corridor where there is a dining table and reclining chairs for rest. Inside the house we find two main sections, a spacious living room and a fully equipped open kitchen, a guest room behind a laundry room. An outdoor shower that connects to the backyard for added convenience. An elegant wooden staircase leads us to the second floor where the main room is located, which has its own elegantly decorated bathroom, limestone veneered shower and a large balcony with sliding windows overlooking the entire property.
